

An example of how to make complex but important information accessible to ESL students through highlighting.

(This page does not export to .pdf correctly.)

6-12 [redacted] silver [redacted] pick up in office 294.

6-12 Old [redacted] taken from black leather pencil case [redacted] has valuable IB data [redacted] on it. Please return [redacted] [redacted] thank you.

6-12 The [redacted] welcome you to the French [redacted] Au [redacted] at 11 o'clock in Königstein, Konrad Adenauer Anlage.
Come along and bring your friends to experience the French culture right in the middle of a charming German village!
For more information, contact Ms Clifton room 306.

6-12 Could all members of the 6-8 and 9-12 History Club [redacted] would like to join the club or are interested in history meet Dr. Langelüdecke TODAY at BRE [redacted] 2 [redacted]

8 Remember to sign up for a Sp [redacted] s one of your CAS commitments.
There are two [redacted] day September 1 [redacted] st. One is the Ti [redacted] ed from 11.30 - 14.00. If you can help (bikers are needed for example) then please be at the primary School between 11.00 and 11.30.

The other event is the welcome [redacted] ters are needed as well as two helpers for T-shirt painting.
Please be at the main campus An der Waldlust at 13.30 - 15.30.
Thank you, Ms. Dillmann

7-8 [redacted] if you are interested [redacted] honor band please [redacted] you are on my list!

6-8 [redacted] s today a [redacted] ning of [redacted] are welcome!