

Flip-flops

When a student does not understand a new word (particularly a noun), have another student explain the word.

While this is happening, open Google pictures and type the word in the input box.

[Note: Be ready to close the Google results page immediately if it becomes clear that it contains offensive pictures!]

